COMMUNICATION RISK

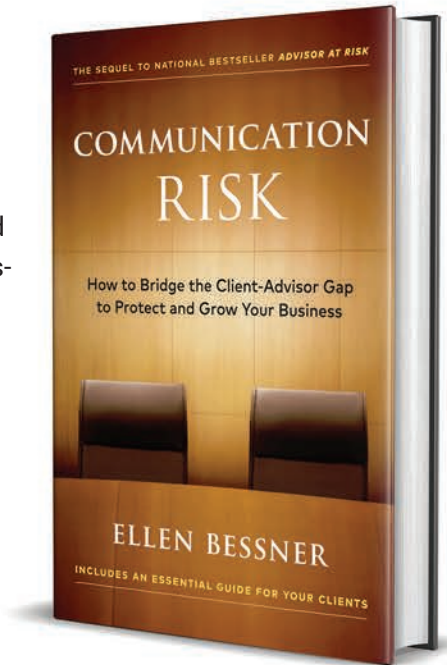

HOW TO BRIDGE THE CLIENT-ADVISOR GAP TO PROTECT AND GROW YOUR BUSINESS

With Advisor at Risk, Ellen Bessner gave the investment industry a complete resource for controlling risk. Now in the sequel, Communication Risk, the best-selling author and expert litigation lawyer takes on one of the most fraught issues facing financial professionals today: the dangerous communication gap between advisors and their clients.

Over her 25+ years in law, Ellen has seen too many distressed professionals spend countless hours fighting clients in court. The disputes vary, but the root cause is always the same: the failure of both parties to understand each other. Communication Risk helps you bridge this critical gap, and avoid the stress, time, and reputational damage of costly court battles and defending your license and reputation.

"Ellen Bessner's book provides a very practical and entertaining guide for advisors to help bolster their client communication and ultimately better manage and serve their clients. A wealth of information."

KATIE WALMSLEY, President of Portfolio Management Association of Canada

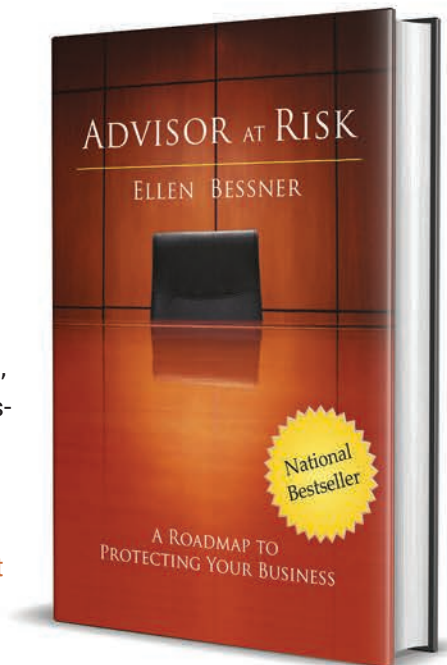

ADVISOR AT RISK

A ROADMAP TO PROTECTING YOUR BUSINESS

Advisor At Risk is the complete resource for taking control of risk and securing good business. It is a best practices must-read for anyone in the investment and insurance industries who wants to avoid becoming the target of client complaints, regulatory investigations, litigation proceedings and damaging press releases.

Author Ellen Bessner takes an in-depth look at risks to advisors and provides practical, easy-to-follow strategies. Drawing on over 20 years of firsthand experience, she stresses the importance, for example, of knowing your client and managing their expectations while maintaining a solid paper trail should a dispute emerge.

"...Securities lawyer Ellen Bessner's Advisor at Risk is an essential guide that maps out how advisors can protect their business reputation and licence from unwelcome litigation and regulatory complaints." JONATHAN CHEVREAU, National Post
